

CROWN HOME Furnishings is recovering and back in business following the Fourth of July fire that destroyed its building at the corner of Northeast Fourth Avenue and Cedar Street. The store is currently operating out of a temporary location at 408

N.E. Fourth Ave., in downtown Camas. Crown's owners have said the fire-damaged building will likely be torn down. (Staff photo by Chris Clohessy)

After the fire, business continues